INTRODUCE

- Software engineering is my area of special interest, especially software architecture, system integration and data mining. I have more than 5 years of web application development experience in many fields. I am honest, and professional and have a good spirit to learn.
- In my free time, I am passionate about learning and self-improvement. I dedicate time to learn English and enhance my knowledge in the field by building personal projects. Through these projects, I have learned new programming languages and frameworks, honed my problem-solving skills, and kept up-to-date with the latest trends in technology.
- Play Game, listen to music and watch movies.
